Just spoke to [REDACTED] HRD means High risk detainees. These detainees are Fraihat cases. They were holding some Fraihat as their removal was imminent. With the pause, their custody will have to be redetermined. Sadly that's not the way it reads.

What does this mean?

Check the HRD at 1300hrs for new review decisions. Release them all, immediately. No sponsor available is not acceptable any longer.

As discussed, PAO brought the email below mine to my attention after Tucker Carlson (media) made inquiries as he has a copy of the memorandum. I am working with my local PAO as DHS will likely have to respond to the questions.

Retract this directive immediately. Please direct your supervisors to follow the memorandum issued. Operational guidance is being developed and will be issued in the coming days. At this point we are going to be following the directive as closely to the letter as possible. Any questions on removals, releases, and/or arrests that we cannot determine fit squarely into the directive will be forwarded up through me to HQ for further discussion and decisions.

All,

I am just the messenger...

As of midnight tonight, stop all removals. This includes Mexican bus runs, charter flights and commercial removals (until further notice). If cases are staged somewhere else, IAO will make further determinations.

Per the DFOD, all cases are to be considered NO SLRFF.

Check the HRD at 1300hrs for new review decisions. Release them all, immediately. No sponsor available is not acceptable any longer.

If you have specific case that you want to discuss, call me.
